School Self Evaluation Process: Following gathering and analysing survey results , we are now at the stage of drafting our School Improvement Plan for Literacy in the school . We are currently coming up with strategies to improve literacy within the school based on the areas identified in the survey.

Christmas Assessments will take place in classrooms.

-SEN:

SNA Review date is December 15th which will determine any increase or reduction in our SNA allocation for next year.

-Extra-Curricular Activities:

Rory Beggan football coaching each week until December break for J Infants to Second class. Then from January to Easter for 3rd to 6th classes.

-Parental Involvement:

Parents Association organised a successful Halloween Disco for the children. Parents Association put in a lot of work also with the annual school Christmas Raffle, gathering prizes and raising funds for the school. The new team has made a good start. Barry the Chairperson liaises with the school on a regular basis which is good. Parent's donated tray bakes etc for the Christmas Raffle morning.
